How to get your book published, and then market and promote it.

You've got some great ideas and you have friends who tell you that you should write a book. But is that all there is to the writing industry? In this teleclass, published author and life coach Taylor Ellwood offers his own experiences working as both a writer and a managing non-fiction editor for a small press. I'll tell you of the importance of promotion, marketing, and of course writing. If you want to get a book published, come to this workshop.
